DURHAM, NH – After trailing for months, Carol Shea-Porter now leads in the race to keep her seat in New Hampshire's First Congressional District. In the Second Congressional District, former Republican Congressman Charlie Bass continues to lead both Democratic candidates as he attempts to regain the seat he lost in 2006.

These findings are based on the latest WMUR Granite State Poll,* conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred four (504) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed by telephone between July 19 and July 27, 2010. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.4 percent. Included was a subsample of 264 adults in the NH First Congressional District (margin of sampling error +/-6.0%), and a subsample of 240 Second Congressional District adults (margin of sampling error +/-6.3%).

1st Congressional District

In New Hampshire's First Congressional District, incumbent Democrat Carol Shea-Porter faces a difficult re-election fight. She continues to have low favorability ratings, and doesn't break 50% against any of her Republican rivals, but she has improved on both of these indicators of reelection during the summer months.

Currently, 41% of adults in New Hampshire's 1st CD have a favorable opinion of her, 35% have an unfavorable opinion of her, and 24% are neutral or don't know enough about her to say. Shea-Porter's net favorability rating remains low at +6%, but this is up from -7% in April.

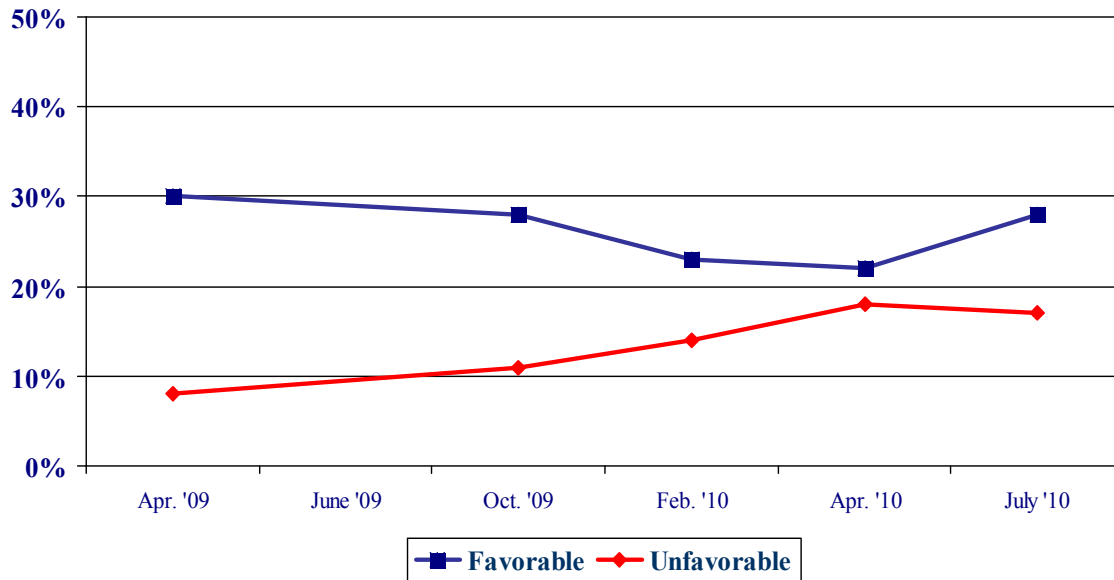

Favorability Ratings – Carol Shea-Porter NH 1st District

* We ask that this copyrighted information be referred to as the Granite State Poll, sponsored by WMUR-TV, and conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center.

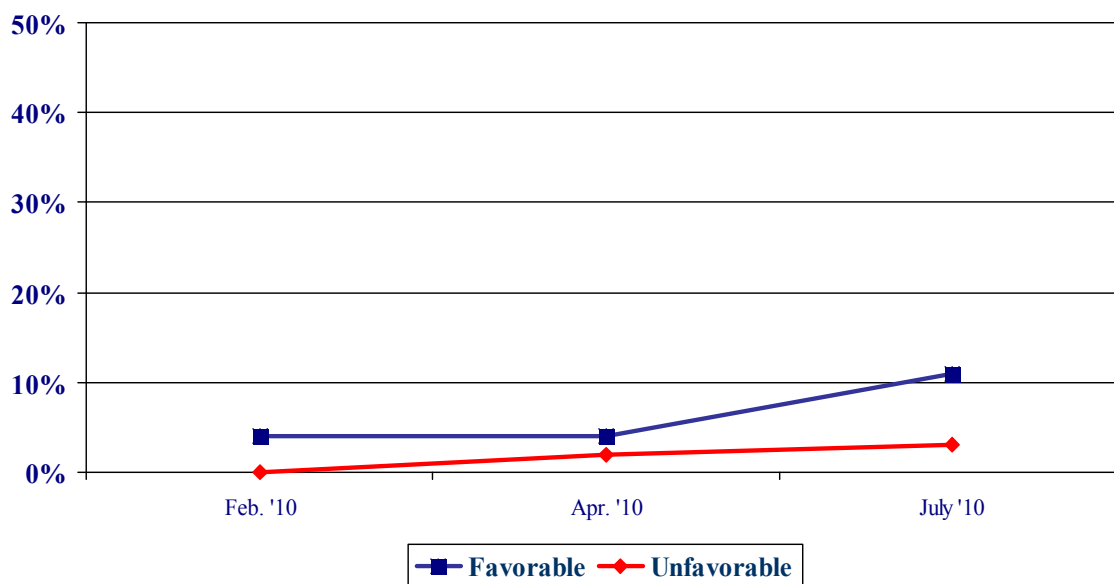

The 1st CD is the more Republican of New Hampshire's two Congressional districts and Shea-Porter has been perceived vulnerable in both her reelection fights in 2008 and in 2010. This has drawn several serious Republican challengers into the race. However, all Republican challengers are largely unknown to voters in the First District, and summer is a difficult time to boost visibility. Former Manchester Mayor Frank Guinta is still the best known Republican. Currently, 28% of 1st CD adults have a favorable opinion of Guinta, 17% have an unfavorable opinion of him, and 55% are either neutral or don't know enough about him to say. Guinta's net favorability rating is +11%, up from +4% in April.

Favorability Ratings – Frank Guinta NH 1st District

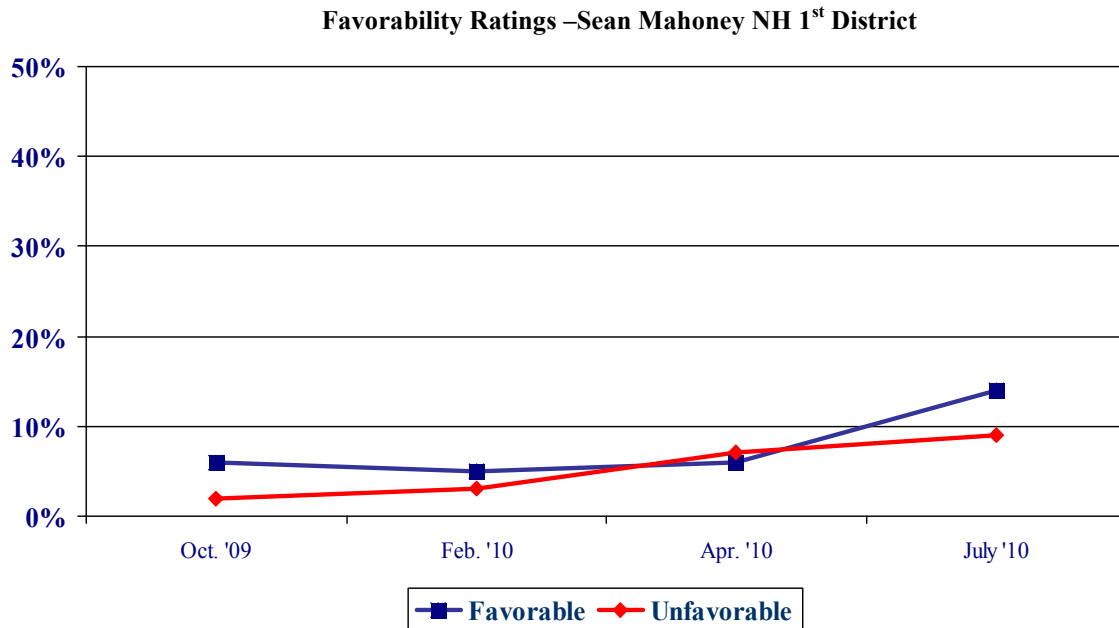

Rich Ashooh, an executive for BAE Systems in Nashua entered the race in February, but remains largely unknown to voters. In the most recent Granite State Poll, only 11% of 1st CD adults say they have a favorable opinion of Ashooh, 3% have an unfavorable opinion of him, and 86% are neutral or don't know enough about him to say. Ashooh's net favorability rating is +8%.

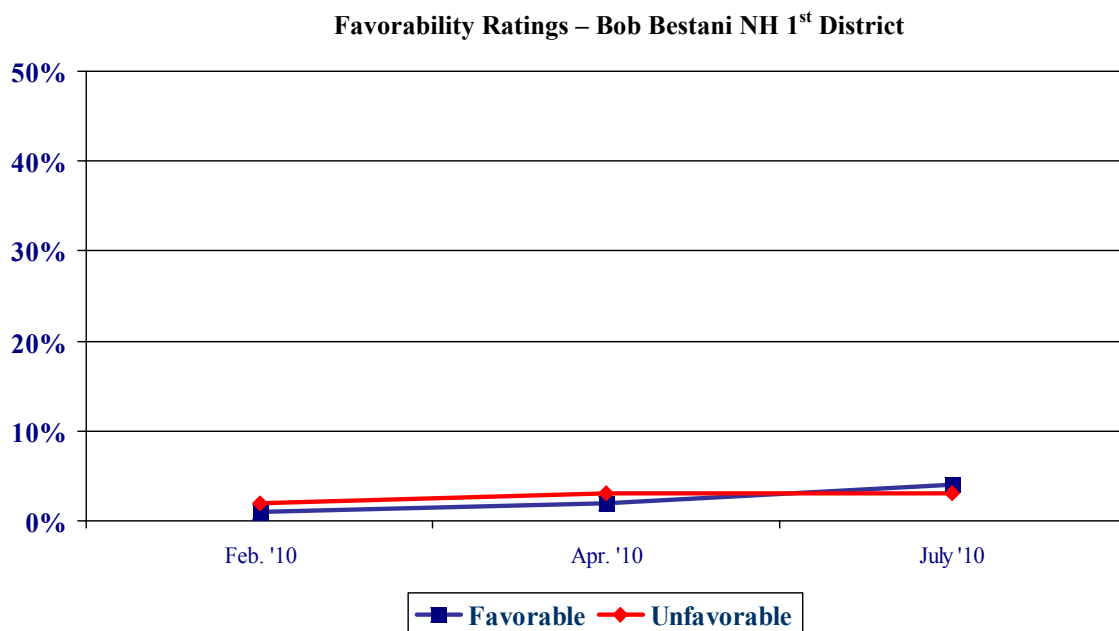

Favorability Ratings – Rich Ashooh NH 1st District

Portsmouth businessman, and former Republican National Committee member Sean Mahoney has had significant success raising money, but is also mostly unknown in the District. Currently, 14% have a favorable opinion of Mahoney, 9% have an unfavorable opinion, and 78% are neutral or don't know enough about him to say. Mahoney's net favorability rating in the 1st CD is +5%.

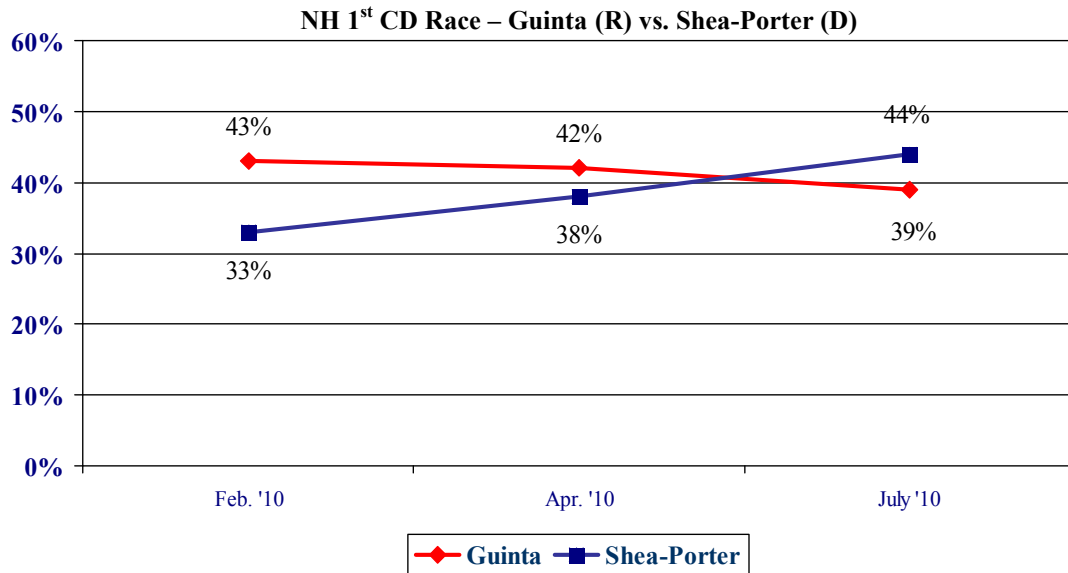

Newmarket businessman Bob Bestani remains largely unknown in the First District compared with his better funded Republican rivals. Currently, only 4% of 1st CD adults say they have a favorable opinion of Bestani, 3% have an unfavorable opinion of him, and 94% are neutral or don't know enough about him to say. Bestani's net favorability rating is +1%, unchanged since February.

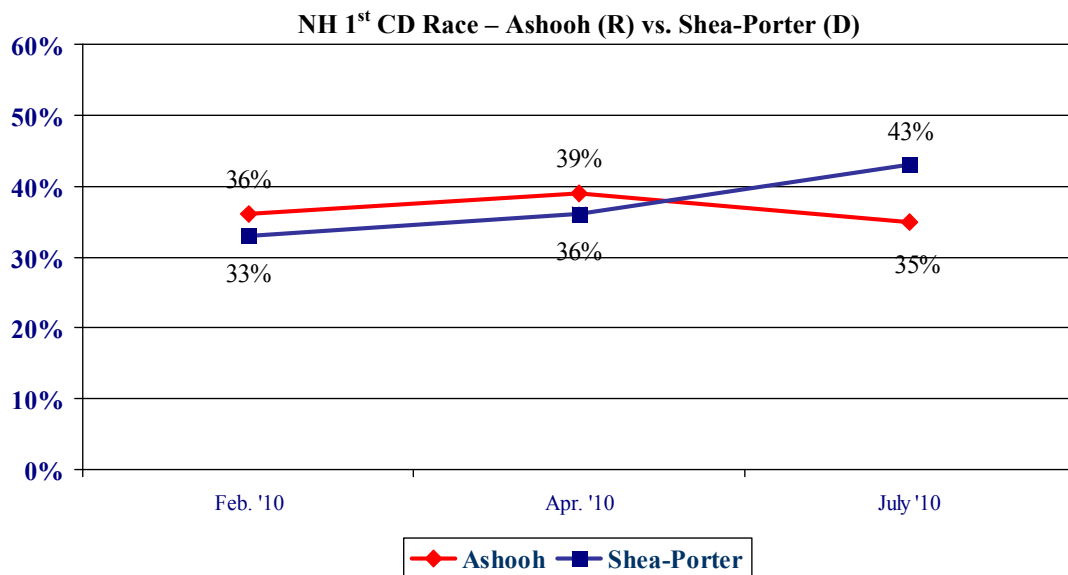

Carol Shea-Porter, due to her improved favorability ratings and her opponents' inability to raise their profiles during the summer, has taken small to moderate leads over her challengers in pre-election trial heats. It is important to point out that Shea-Porter does not break 50% against any of her challengers, a critical indicator of weakness for a Congressional incumbent.

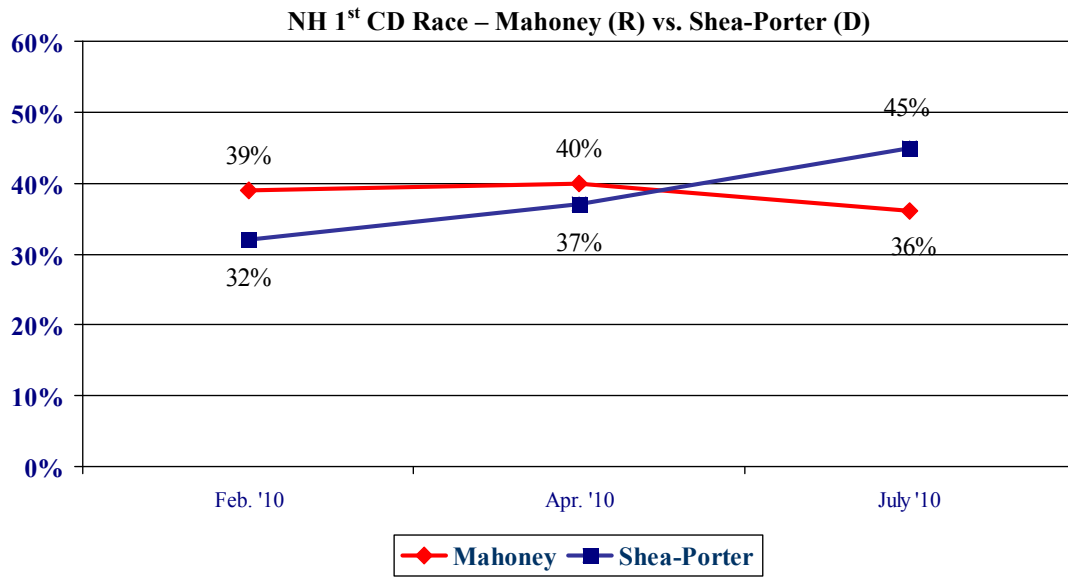

In a matchup between Shea-Porter and her best known challenger, Frank Guinta, 44% of likely 1st CD voters say they will vote for Shea-Porter, 39% say they will vote for Guinta, 1% prefer some other candidate, and 16% are undecided. Guinta had held leads over Shea-Porter in both the February and April Granite State Polls.

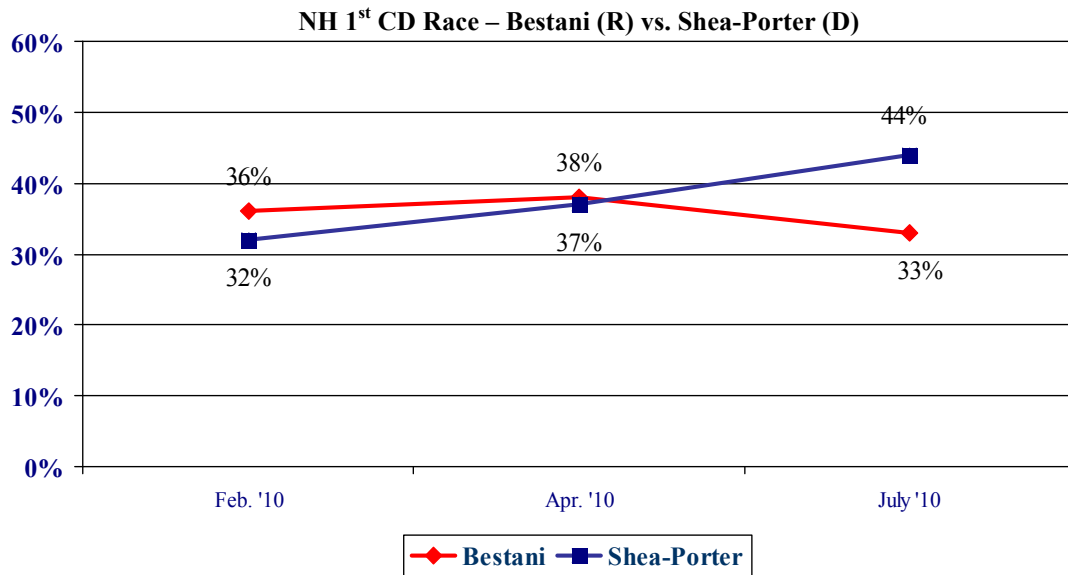

In a matchup with Rich Ashooh, 43% of likely 1st CD voters say they will vote for Shea-Porter, 35% would vote for Ashooh, and 22% are undecided.

In a matchup with Sean Mahoney, 45% of likely 1st CD voters say they will vote for Shea-Porter, 36% would vote for Mahoney, 1% prefer some other candidate and 18% are undecided.

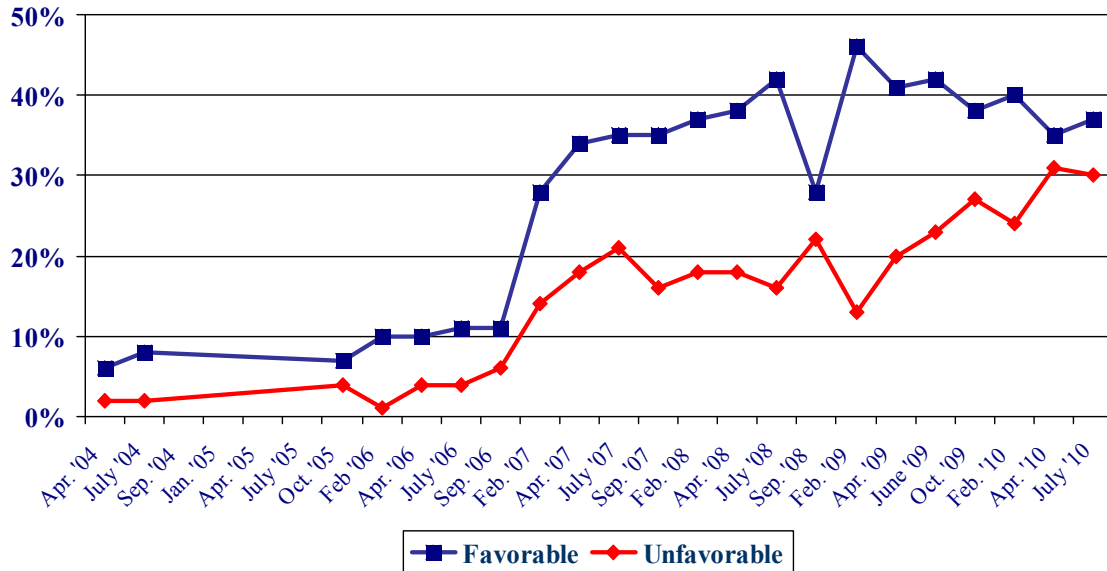

And in a matchup with Bob Bestani, 44% of likely 1st CD voters say they will vote for Shea-Porter, 33% would vote for Bestani, 1% prefer some other candidate, and 22% are undecided.

Congressional Favorability Ratings –NH 2nd District

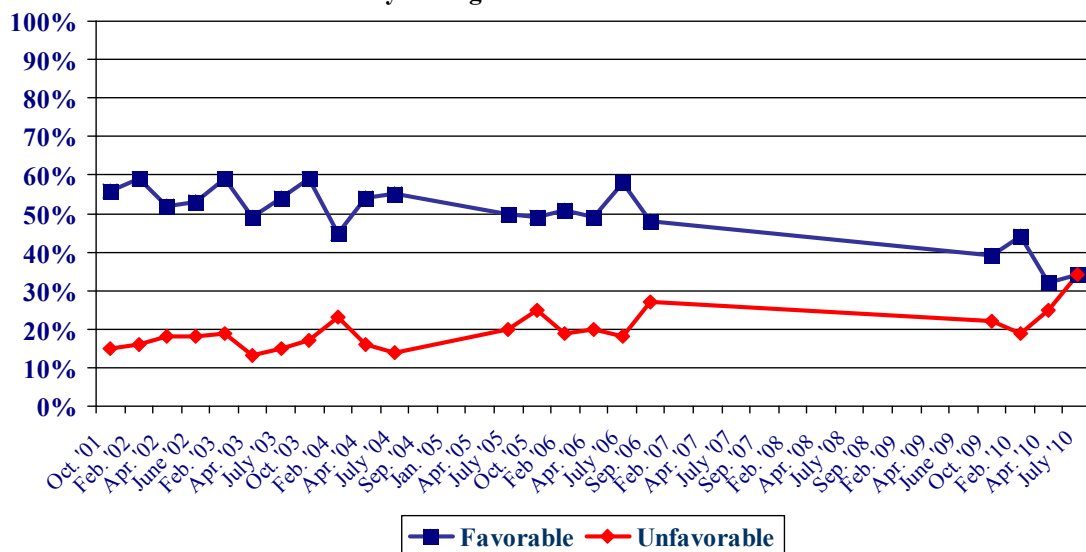

In New Hampshire's Second Congressional District, Congressman Paul Hodes' favorability ratings have remained unchanged since April. Currently, 37% of 2nd CD adults have a favorable opinion of Hodes, 30% have an unfavorable opinion of him, and 33% are neutral or don't know enough about him to say. Hodes' net favorability stands at +7% in the Second District, up from +4% in April.

Favorability Ratings – Paul Hodes NH 2nd District

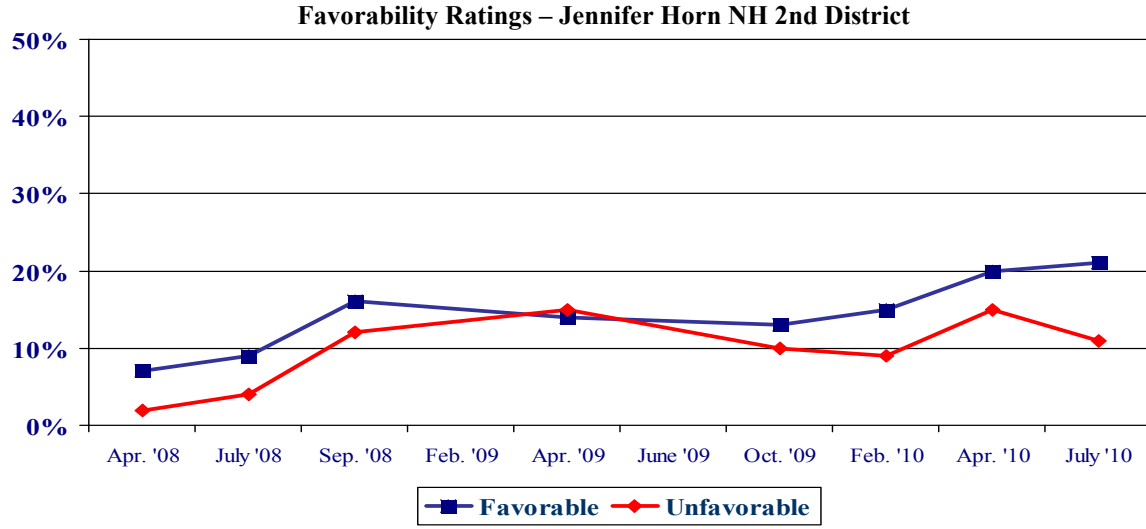

Former Congressman Charlie Bass, who held the 2nd CD seat from 1994 until 2006 when he lost to Hodes, is running to regain the seat. Bass remains well known in the District, but his unfavorable ratings have increased sharply since his entry into the race. Currently, 34% of 2nd CD adults have a favorable opinion of Bass, 34% have an unfavorable of him, and 33% are neutral or don't know enough about him to say. Bass' net favorability rating is 0% down significantly from +25% in February.

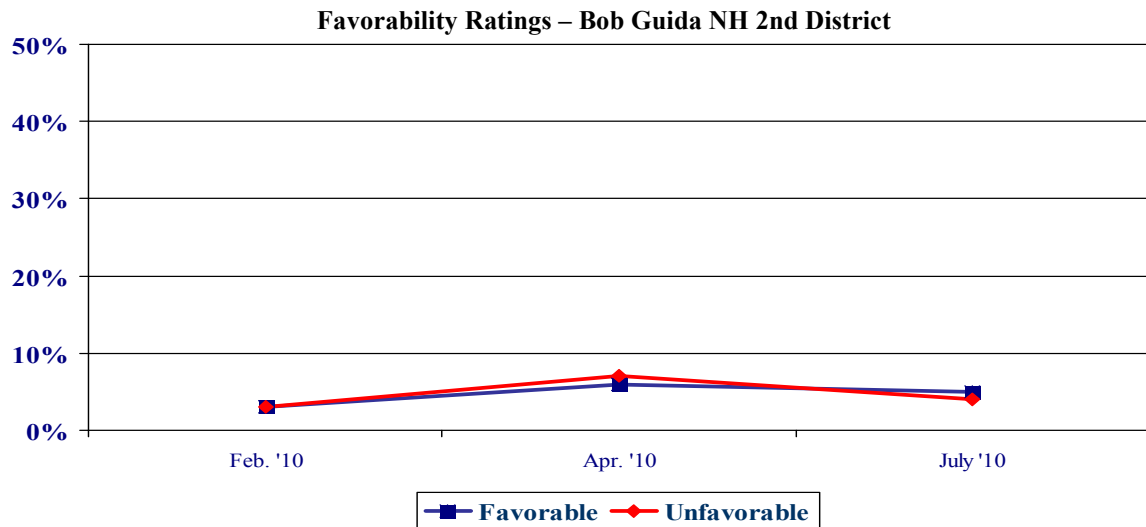

Favorability Ratings – Charlie Bass NH 2nd District

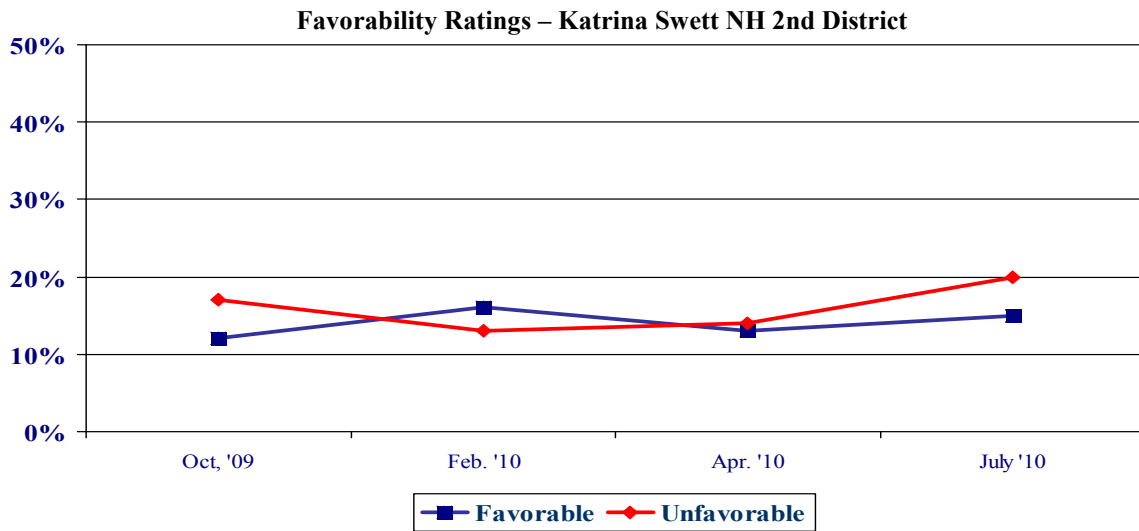

Journalist Jennifer Horn, who lost to Hodes in 2008, is running again in 2010. Horn remains largely unknown among adults in the 2nd CD – 21% of 2nd CD adults have a favorable opinion of her, 11% have an unfavorable opinion, and 68% are neutral or don't know enough to say. Horn's net favorability is +10%, up from +5% in April.

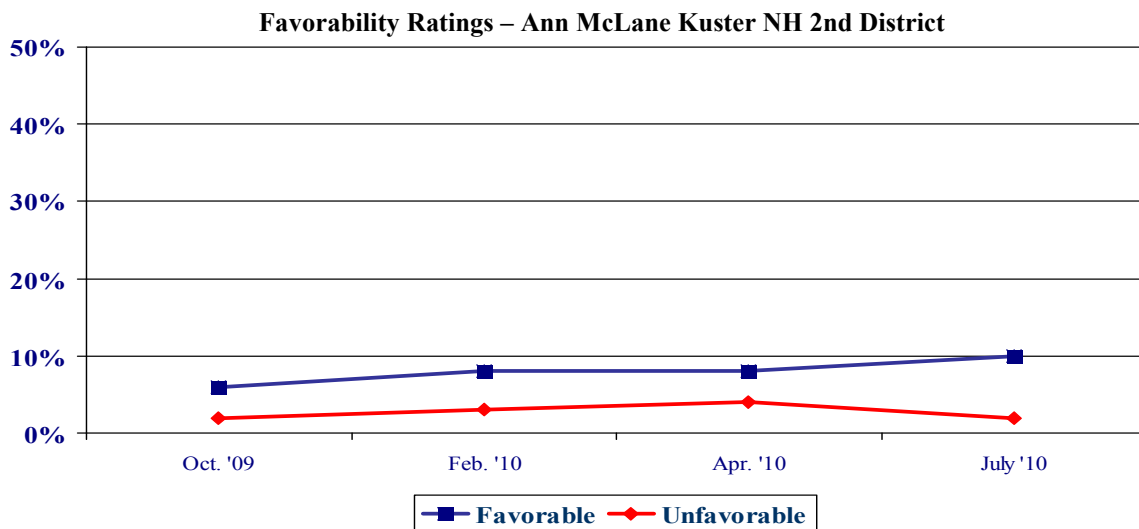

A third Republican running is former State Representative Bob Guida. Guida remains unknown in the 2nd CD with only 5% of 2nd CD adults saying they have a favorable opinion of him, 4% have an unfavorable opinion, and 90% are neutral or don't know enough about him to say. Guida's favorability ratings have remained largely unchanged since February.

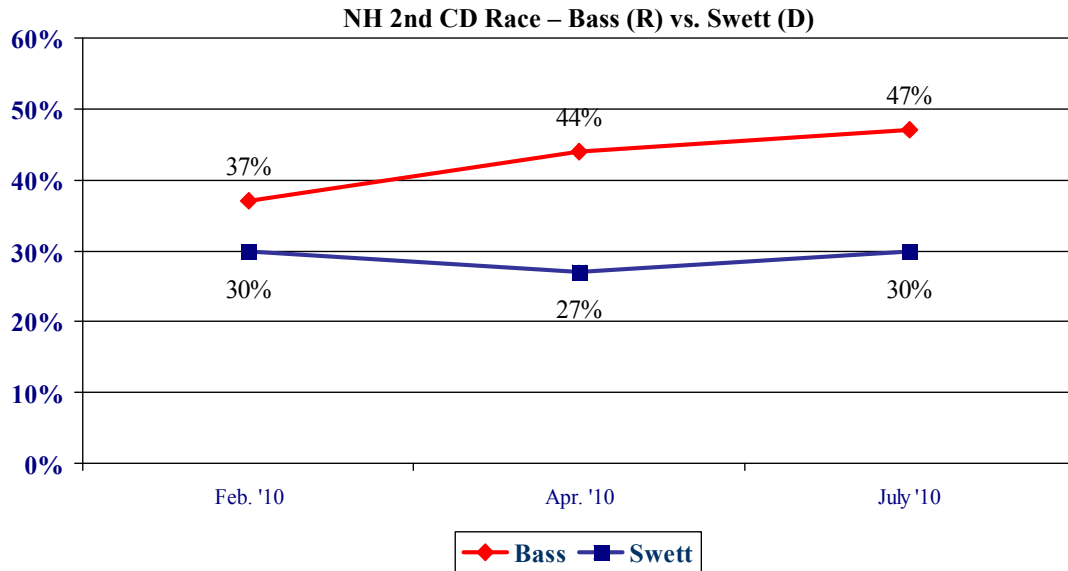

On the Democratic side, Katrina Swett, who challenged Bass in 2002, is viewed favorably by 15% of 2nd CD adults, 20% have an unfavorable opinion of her, and 65% are neutral or don't know enough about her to say. Swett's net favorability rating is -5%, down from -1% in April.

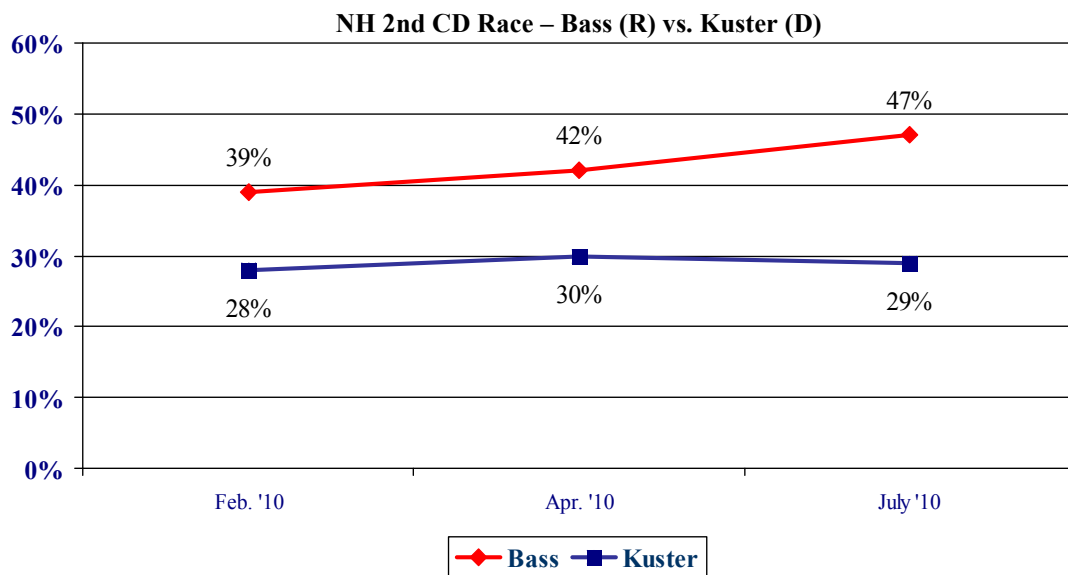

Concord attorney Ann McLane Kuster has been very successful fundraising for the 2nd CD seat, but remains largely unknown to residents of the District. Currently, 10% of 2nd CD adults have a favorable opinion of Kuster, 2% have an unfavorable opinion of her, and 88% are either neutral or don't know enough about her to say. Kuster's net favorability rating is +8%.

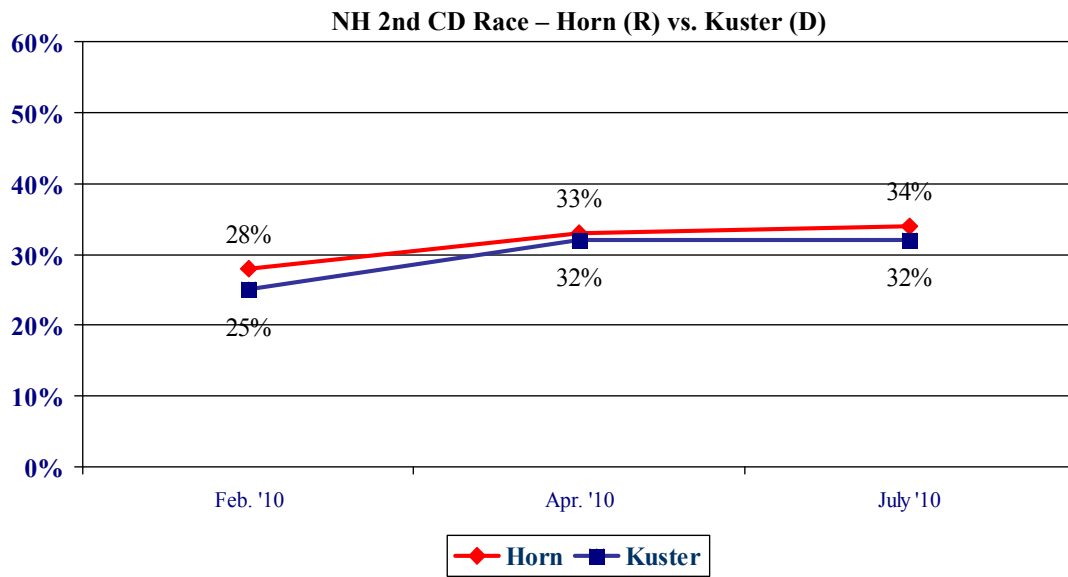

The top two Republicans and top two Democrats in name recognition and finances were matched in trial heats in the most recent Granite State poll. In a hypothetical race between Charlie Bass and Katrina Swett, a rematch of their 2002 race, Bass currently is favored by 47% of 2nd CD likely voters, 30% prefer Swett, 1% prefer some other candidate, and 21% are undecided. The margin in this race is unchanged since April.

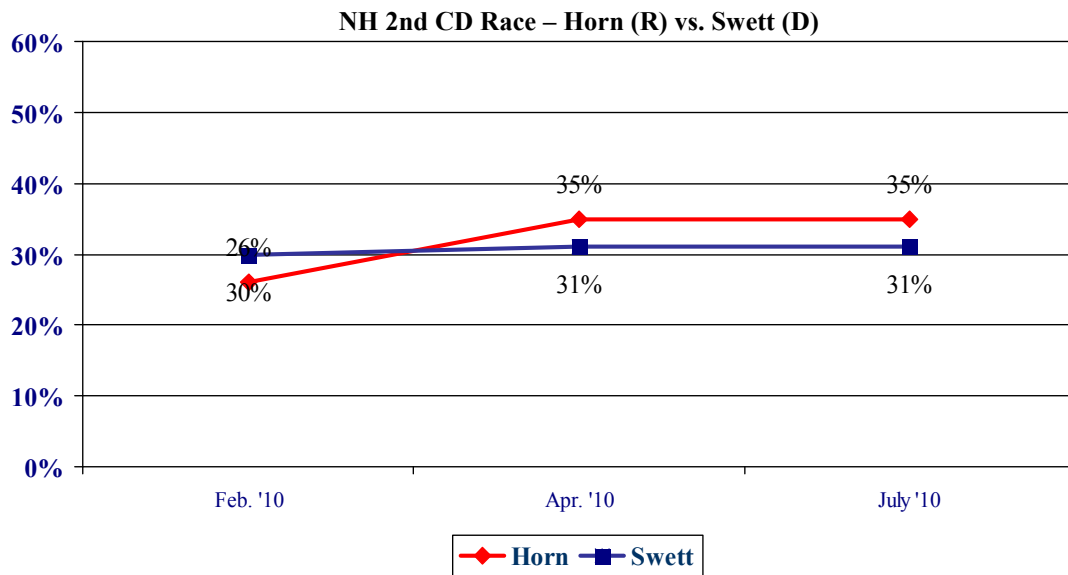

And in a hypothetical matchup between Bass and Ann McLane Kuster, Bass is favored by 47% of 2nd CD likely voters, 29% prefer Kuster, 1% prefer some other candidate, and 23% are undecided. This race has continued to widen since February.

When Jennifer Horn is matched against Kuster, Horn holds a very slim lead, 34% to 32%, and 34% are undecided. This race remains unchanged since April.

And in a matchup between Horn and Swett, Horn leads Swett by 35% to 31% with 34% undecided. This race also remains unchanged since April.

These findings are based on the latest WMUR Granite State Poll,* conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred four (504) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed by telephone between July 19 and July 27, 2010. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.4 percent. Included was a subsample of 264 adults in the NH First Congressional District (margin of sampling error +/-6.0%), and a subsample of 240 Second Congressional District adults (margin of sampling error +/-6.3%).
